DEATHS.

Just after the Gazette had gone to press on Saturday evening a special message reached this office from Charlottesville, W. Va., announcing the death in that town at the residence of Mr. S. Walter Washington, of Mrs. Eliza Selden Hunter, wife of Major Robert W. Hunter, secretary of military records for Virginia. Mrs. Hunter had been an invalid for some time and recently went from Virginia Beach to be with her sister. She was a daughter of Lieutenant Colonel John Augustine Washington, of Mount Vernon. He was killed at the battle of Red Bank during the civil war, while serving as a member of Gen. Robert E. Lee's staff. Mrs. Hunter was born at Mount Vernon in 1848, and grew up to womanhood in the historic home on the Potomac. She was the great-granddaughter of George Washington. Her father owned Mount Vernon, and it was he who made a sale of the property to the association of women which has since that time had care of the birthplace of the "Father of His Country." She was a sister of Mr. Lawrence Washington, formerly of this city, and after her marriage to Mr. Hunter came to Alexandria and resided here for some time. Recently she became worse, her health being already impaired. Major Hunter was at her bedside when she died. She was a woman of culture and refinement and was possessed of many Christian virtues and leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were held at Charlottesville today. She is survived by four sisters and one brother: Mr. Lawrence Washington, of Washington; Mrs. Beverly D. Tucker, of Lynchburg; Mrs. R. P. Chew, of Charlottesville; Mrs. N. H. Willis, of Charlottesville, and Mrs. Eleanor W. Howard, of Alexandria.

Mrs. Jeannette Berwanger, aged 72 years, wife of Mr. Abram Berwanger, died at an early hour yesterday morning at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Henry King, in Baltimore. Death was due to paralysis and a complication of diseases. Mrs. Berwanger is survived by her husband, four daughters (Mrs. Henry King, Mrs. Samuel Bendheim, of Alexandria; Mrs. David Wurtzberger, and Miss Minnie Berwanger) and one son (Mr. Sol Berwanger).

Mrs. R. B. Graham died at her home in Danville yesterday. She was a daughter of the late Geo. Gardner Booth, of Warrenton, and sister of Mrs. A. C. Wyckoff, of this city. The interment took place in Danville today.

A CHANGE IN THE WEATHER.

A northwest breeze set in at the close of Saturday and the temperature throughout the night was pleasant. The weather, however, yesterday became sultry at an early hour, and continued so until early in the night, when cooler conditions prevailed. Yesterday afternoon a refreshing rain fell for a short time, but humid conditions remained for some time after it had ceased. The rain, it is said, was heavier in some sections outside the city.

A severe electrical storm passed over Chesapeake Bay yesterday afternoon, and a similar disturbance struck Norfolk. The rain fell in torrents in the latter place and the wind reached hurricane proportions.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late John G. Wiley, who was killed last Thursday in Andover, N. J., by being knocked from a bridge on which he was working, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence, 123 Prince street. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, pastor of Grace Church, conducted the services. Members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral. The interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Robert Dawson, Thomas Dawson, Edward Brown, E. Haywood, S. A. Forrest and O. Stone, the last named from Washington.

WOMEN IN A FIGHT.

Gertrude Jones and Emma and Mamie Jackson, three colored women, were arrested early last night for fighting in the northeastern section of the city. During the fight Gertrude Jones wielded a force bottle which she brought down with her upon the head of Emma Jackson. The latter, upon reaching the station house, had her head bandaged by Lieutenant Smith. The case was called in the Police Court this morning, but Gertrude Jones could not be found. She had left collateral and forfeited the same. Mamie and Emma Jackson were fined $5 each for disorderly conduct.

PITCHES NO-HIT GAME.

The Cardinal Athletic Club defeated the Bank Clerks Saturday by a score of 16 to 3. Trenary, pitcher for Cardinals, did not let the Bankers get a hit, and struck out 15 batters. Four errors by McBride and two by Whitten enabled the Bankers to make three runs. The feature of the game was the heavy hitting and fast fielding of the O. A. C. Anderson, pitcher for the Clerks, was knocked out of the box in the eighth, three home runs being made off him. The Cardinals will play the Regulars baseball team on the fair grounds Wednesday at 5 o'clock.

LIGHT INFANTRY RETURNS.

The Alexandria Light Infantry (Company G, First Virginia Regiment) returned last night on the steamer St. Johns from Colonial Beach. The members of the organization report that they had had a delightful experience. A crowd of friends and relatives of the company met them at the wharf and accompanied them to the armory.

ROBBERY BY NEGROES.

About twelve o'clock last Saturday night David C. Calvin, a livery man of Manassas, entered the station house and reported that he had a short time before been robbed of $45, a watch and a knife at the culvert of the Washington Southern Railway as he was about to ascend the steps to the union passenger station where he intended to take a train for his home. According to Calvin's story, he entered a saloon in the western section of the city, and upon emerging therefrom was followed by four negroes, two of whom were in the saloon when he entered it. When he had almost reached the station the negroes surrounded him, and while one of them held a pistol to his breast the others took his money, watch and knife. Calvin was later furnished by Lieut. Smith with money sufficient to purchase a ticket for his home.

Officers Knight and Rawlett last night arrested a negro named Ellis West on suspicion of being one of the highwaymen. West had with him a watch and a knife, but they did not correspond to those taken from Calvin. West and "Bart" Day, 8 Antley Court, James Thomas, Dan Nelson and John Pines were brought before the Police Court this morning the others having also been arrested by Officers Knight and Rawlett. Calvin was present, but he failed to identify the prisoners as the men who robbed him. All but West were liberated, his case having been continued.

SUPERVISOR NAMED.

Congressman Ourlin today named as supervisor of census for this, the Eighth district, Mr. Albert Fletcher, jr., of Warrenton, and, who, it is understood, will be at once appointed to that position by Supervisor Durant. Mr. Ourlin had first named Mr. R. T. Green, of Culpeper, for the position and Mr. Green was endorsed by the two Virginia senators. Congressman Slemmons, from the Ninth district, dispenser of federal patronage of the state and who was greatly disappointed when the president announced that he would divide evenly the ten Virginia census supervisors between the democrats and republicans, strongly objected to Mr. Green on the ground that he was a partisan and a member of the state democratic committee. In the meantime Mr. Green entered the contest for clerk of the House of Delegates and on Wednesday last formally announced his candidacy for that position. On Thursday Mr. Ourlin withdrew the name of Mr. Green and, as stated above, today named Mr. Fletcher in his stead. Mr. Fletcher in 1900 was assistant supervisor for the Eighth district under R. B. Campbell and is said to be in every way competent to fill the position, which pays $2,000. He will have the appointment of nearly 200 census takers throughout the district. At present Mr. Fletcher is engaged with his father in the general merchandise business in Warrenton.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. R. Canton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A white man charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was sent to jail for ten days.

"Lucky" Washington, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was sent to the workhouse for ninety days.

Frank Williams, charged with fighting, was dismissed.

Stanton Scott and James Thomas, both colored, charged with assaulting Dan Nelson, were fined $5 each.

Isaac Edney, colored, charged with vagrancy, was sent to jail for six months.

Eliza Mulley, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Gertrude Jones, colored, charged with fighting, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear. Emma and Mamie Jackson, charged with a similar offense, were fined $5 each.

Ellis West, colored, suspected of robbing D. C. Calvin, had his case continued. "Bart" Day, Stanley Scott, James Thomas, Dan Nelson and John Pines, suspected of complicity in the robbery, were dismissed.

James Hughes, charged with removing articles from a Southern Railway car, had his case continued, and Harvey Robinson, charged with a similar offense, was fined $20 and given 30 days in jail.

THE FINAL SETTLEMENT.

The great telephone scene near the close of the first act of "The Final Settlement," the new American drama, will be seen at the Opera House tonight and is one of the most intensely interesting and startling effects ever produced on any stage.

The play is hailed as a worthy successor to "The Lion and the Mouse," and is a severe arraignment of some of the talents with which our ultra rich social class are filled.

Miss Marion Sherwood will appear in the leading role. The play is an absorbing story of life among that class of society who have suddenly acquired riches and teaches a moral, unique in the history of stage literature.

Indianapolis Star.—The author has taken the love story of a millionaire steel king and an actress and built around it a play as dignified, and in some points even more interesting than the story of the millionaire oil king in "The Lion and the Mouse."

Indianapolis Sun.—"The Final Settlement," an intensely interesting and dignified drama, presented by a company possessing talent, afforded an opportunity of absorbing the essence of a thousand sayings on fidelity and virtue, while enjoying a rare dramatic treat.

RECRUIT FOR MR. SHERWOOD.

"Lucky" Washington, a white man, who has often been before the Police Court on the charge of drunkenness, was before the bar again this morning to answer for his chronic offences. Justice Canton sent him to the work house for ninety days.

CONVICTED OF LARCENY.

James Hughes and Harvey Robinson were before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of removing articles of merchandise from a Southern Railway car at the W. & O. depot on the afternoon of the 18th instant.

Commonwealth's Attorney S. G. Brent conducted the prosecution, and Mr. L. H. Moschen appeared for Hughes and Mr. Edmund Burke for Robinson. Hughes was placed on the stand, and he stated that he went to the depot with Robinson and that the latter entered a car and removed therefrom a box containing a cake of cheese and another box, the contents of which he was unable to tell.

Hughes said Robinson threw the boxes down between the car and the platform, and later the two men removed them to a spot near the river shore.

Chief Goods took the stand and stated that the goods described by Hughes could not be found at the place indicated but early on the night of the 18th he and other officers found several hundred dollars' worth of merchandise under a car between Oronoco and Pendleton streets.

The case against Hughes was continued, but Robinson was fined $20 and given 30 days in jail. An appeal will be taken.

MASONS PLAY BALL.

The game of ball to be played tomorrow afternoon between teams composed of members from Washington and Jackson Lodges promises to be interesting.

The teams are evenly matched and each feels assured of victory. Game will be called at 4:30 p. m. on north Alfred street grounds. The teams will be made up from the following named gentlemen:

From Washington Lodge, Messrs. Duffy, Cox, O. B. Swann, Gory, Sam'l Pitts, A. H. Osler, Rose, Brumback, Egghorn, Zebary, Geo. Evans and Cooper.

From Jackson Lodge, Messrs. Penn, A. Schwartzmann, J. Schwartzmann, Roh, Saliers, R. W. Davis, H. P. Taylor, P. O. Cockey, F. Baylis, Frank Latham, R. M. Harper, S. P. Fisher and H. B. Oston.

The batteries will probably be for Washington, Rose and Duffy; for Jackson, Penn and Oston.

FIGHT IN WASHINGTON.

While a number of Alexandrians were waiting at the electric railroad station in Washington at midnight last night a Washington negro became very offensive to his conduct when he was remonstrated with by a young Alexandrian. A fight followed in which a number of men, white and colored, took part.

The Alexandrian fairly whipped the negro, who was glad to get away when released. During the row another Alexandrian, who attempted to set as peacemaker, was badly cut about the face with a razor by a negro man.

TO BE PUT ON THE ROADS.

Isaac Edney, colored, was before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of escaping from the chain gang. That charge was dropped and Edney was sent to jail for six months under the vagrant act. By this action the prisoner will be put to work on the roads from which occupation he will find it more difficult to escape than from the chain gang.

Watch Need Cleaning?

Probably it does after the dust and exposure of summer travels. A tiny particle of foreign matter frequently works havoc in the delicate machinery of a watch, and prompt attention is necessary in such a case.

The most thorough cleaning and repairing is done in our repair department, no part of the work being slighted, and the charges are moderate.

All kinds of repairing done promptly and satisfactorily.

NO PASTOR CHOSEN.

A meeting of the congregation of Immanuel Lutheran Church was held last night for the purpose of electing a pastor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. J. J. May, which was tendered several months ago. The election was, however, postponed until some future date.

WAREHOUSE COMPLETED.

The large warehouse which has been under construction at Leesburg for the Bryant Fertilizer Company has been completed and was turned over to said company by Contractor Julian D. Knight today.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Messrs. Harry Aitchison and P. McK. Baldwin have sold a two-story frame dwelling at the southwest corner of Columbus and Gibson streets to Jas. L. Johnson.

Gustave Wade, aged 40 years, attempted to commit suicide yesterday afternoon at his home in Washington by inhaling illuminating gas. He was discovered by a policeman after he had become unconscious and was with difficulty resuscitated. Wade's wife, it is said, resides in New York, and his mother and married daughter in this city.

It is announced that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will on and after October 1 run an annex train for the exclusive benefit of Washingtonians who are employed in the Potomac railroad yards west of this city. The train, it is supposed, will proceed south as far as these yards, and Alexandria employees will be compelled to get to the yards and away from the same in the best way they can.

A large number of ministers and delegates representing about 100 churches in the Baltimore and Virginia conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, met at Great Falls on Saturday, for the annual biblical institute meeting. The sessions of the institute will continue until September 6. Prominent clergymen from Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia will deliver addresses.

Mr. Joseph Moore has just completed the building of a new speed boat, which will be launched either this evening or tomorrow morning.

Last night was one of the most beautiful of the season, the harvest moon shining almost as brightly as day.

The employees of the Southern Railway have been placed on nine hours' time.

The churches were but dimly attended yesterday.

We are going to branch out. We will shortly open a store at the N. W. corner of King and Alfred streets. It will be known as the "Auth Market" and will be the "classiest" store in town. We expect to "open for business" on Saturday, Sept. 11th. Our line will include the finest Home-killed fresh meats (Auth's), those irresistibly delicious Auth Products (a la Auth stand) and a complete line of fancy foreign and domestic produce. This store will be an innovation to the people of Alexandria, Syllan, Blouheim, The Auth Stand City Market.

American Yacht Wins. Marblehead, Mass., Aug. 30.—The American sloop yacht Joynts won the first of the races for the President Cup and Governor Draper cups this afternoon in one of the prettiest contests ever seen off here. Not over two minutes separated the first five boats at the completion of the first leg and the American yacht finished the race not over a minute apart.
